

Somebody

Kristinia DeBarge

So young and vulnerable, told myself
In order to feel the joy I had to go through the pain
I lost track of tears I've cried through the years
Even convinced myself that I was the one to blame All the searchin' left me broken
Had to pick up the pieces, be sad for no reason
Now I'm so glad to be with you
Had a breakthrough, finally know how it feels To be loved by somebody, be loved by somebody
To be loved by somebody, body, be loved by somebody, body
To be loved by somebody, be loved by somebody
To be loved by somebody, body, be loved by You make me say ooh
Somebody, somebody, body
You make me say ooh
Somebody, somebody, body Release myself from the negative
Learnin' from my mistake so I'll never hurt again
I had to tear down the wall around my heart
Left myself open for love and I'm still happy I did it 'cause All the searchin' left me broken
Had to pick up the pieces, be sad for no reason
Now I'm so glad to be with you
Had a breakthrough, finally know how it feels To be loved by somebody, be loved by somebody
To be loved by somebody, body, be loved by somebody, body
To be loved by somebody, be loved by somebody
To be loved by somebody, body, be loved by You make me say ooh
Somebody, somebody, body
You make me say ooh
Somebody, somebody, body Now that I found you baby I ain't never gonna let you go
I want to tell the world how good it feels To be loved by somebody, be loved by somebody
To be loved by somebody, body, be loved by somebody, body
To be loved by somebody, be loved by somebody
To be loved by somebody, body, be loved by You make me say ooh
Somebody, somebody, body
Ooh
Somebody, somebody, body
