

You're My Idol

Donnie Klang

My female messiah so glad that you came
Your presence has touched me, my whole world has changed
I'm walking on water, you strengthen my faith
It feels like I feel ya, your knees drop afraid to pray, pray
Just like a perfect work of art, Picasso on display
Girl you're my inspiration
You're my idol or the bible
And I must confess your love is the best
You're my idol and only I know
How to worship you girl
I'll never leave, I'll never leave
That's where I will be, oh, oh, oh
That's where I will be
Your love's like a temple so sacred and precious
You have my heart and that's my confession
I found the truth and I found it in you
Everything you teach me I'll use
Just like a perfect work of art, Picasso on display
Girl you're my inspiration
You're my idol or the bible
And I must confess your love is the best
You're my idol and only I know
How to worship you girl
You're my idol or the bible
And I must confess your love is the best
You're my idol and only I know
How to worship you girl
I'll never leave, I'll never leave
That's where I will be, oh, oh, oh
That's where I will be
Had a vision I saw you girl and I couldn't even breathe
My body shakes, there's no time
So I pray to the universe, how long will it be?
How long will it take you?
You're my idol or the bible
And I must confess your love is the best
You're my idol and only I know
How to worship you girl
You're my idol or the bible

And I must confess your love is the best
You're my idol and only I know
How to worship you girl
I'll never leave, I'll never leave
That's where I will be, oh, oh, oh
That's where I will be
