

Spit Out the Bone

Metallica

Come unto me and you will feel perfection
Come unto me and dedicate
Come unto me, you'll never feel rejection
Come unto me and terminate Remove your heart, it's only good for bleeding
Bleeding through your fragile skin
Remove your thought, 'cause it's only for deceiving
Deceiving thoughts destroy within Disappear like man was never here
Long live machine
The future surpreme
Man overthrown
Spit out the bone Plug into me, I guarantee devotion
Plug into me and dedicate
Plug into me and I'll save you from emotion
Plug into me and terminate Accelurate, utopian solution
Finally cure the Earth of man
Exterminate, speeding up the evolution
Set on course a master plan Reinvent the Earth inhabitants
Long live machine
The future surpreme
Man overthrown
Spit out the bone The flesh betrays the flesh
Your man has had his time
We lay him down to rest
Machines the new divine Stop breathing
And dedicate to me
Stop dreaming
And terminate for me All meaning
You dedicate to me
All feelings
You terminate for me Disappear like man was never here
Long live machine
Our future supreme
Man overthrown
Spit out the bone, yeah
