Losing At Loving

Blue County

I'm not sayin', I feel sad about
The way you broke my heart
But the last time that I lost this bad
I had to sell my carSomebody call me a doctor
Somebody call me a nurse
Losin' a game is a cryin' shame
But losin' at lovin' is worseI'm not sayin', I'm depressed about
The way things didn't work out
But the last time that I lost this bad
I had to sell my houseSomebody call me a gypsy
Somebody take off this curse
Losin' a game is a cryin' shame
But losin' at lovin' is worseIt's like drawin' a two when ya need a three It's like drawin' a three when ya need a four
It's like drawin' a four when ya need a five
It's like bein' dead when you're still aliveI'm not sayin'
I've gone mad since you left for another
But the last time that I lost this bad
I had to sell my little brotherCome on, somebody call me a preacher
Somebody call me a hearse
Losin' a game is a cryin' shame
But losin' at lovin' is worseSomebody call up St. Peter
You better hurry or I might get there first
Losin' a game is a cryin' shame
But losin' at lovin' is worse
Oh, losin' at lovin' is worse
