Face

The Black Ghosts

Don't look now
'Cause it is coming for you, it is coming for you
Don't slow down
It is around the corner, around the corner
Don't hold back
You got to give what you got, give what you got
You got to face the music, face the music,
Face the music, face the music?No use hiding
'Cause it will break down the door, it will come through the wall
No good fighting
'Cause it is stronger than violence and harder than silence
No use lying
'Cause it will find the truth inside of you
No good crying
You got to face the music, face the music,
Face the music, face the music?Don't look now
'Cause it is coming for you, it is coming for you
Don't slow down
It is around the corner, around the corner
Don't hold back
You got to give what you got, give what you got
You got to face the music, face the music,
Face the music, face the music?
