Do It Now

Ingrid Michaelson

Sitting in the back of the bus
Talking about nothing, oh we're talking about us
Watching as the world goes hammering on Hammering onYou say that you've got nothing left
There's nothing left in you to find
You're gonna ride it out gonna wait it out
Living to die, you're living to dieNo one's gonna wait for you
No one's gonna wait for youSo do it now
Do it right now
Don't waste a minute on the darkness and the pity sitting in your mind
And do it right now
And do it right nowEverything will stop on a dime
Everything will crash into itself in good time
Do you want to beat your own heart beat your own heart
Or leave it behind, leave it behindNo one's gonna wait for you
No one's gonna wait for youSo do it now
Do it right now
Don't waste a minute on the darkness and the pity sitting in your mind
And do it right now
And do it right nowI'm gonna get up I'm gonna get right out of bed, get out of my bed
You're gonna stand up, you're gonna stand right up again, stand right up again
I'm gonna get up I'm gonna get out of my bed, get out of my head
You're gonna stand up, you're gonna stand up
You're gonna stand up
You're gonna stand upSo do it now
Do it right now
Don't waste a minute on the darkness and the pity sitting in your mind
And do it right now
And do it right now
Do it right now
(Do it right now)
