American Girl

Everclear

She was an American girl Raised on promises She couldn't help thinking that There was a little more to life Somewhere elseAfter all it was a great big world With lots of places to run to And if she had to die tryin' She had one little promise She was gonna keepOh yeah, all right Take it easy baby Make it last all night She was an American girlIt was kind of cold that night She stood alone on the balcony She could hear the cars roll by Out on four forty one like waves Crashing on the beachAnd for one desperate moment there She crept back in her memory God, it's so painful when something That's so close, is still so far out of reachOh yeah, all right Take it easy baby Make it last all night She was an American girl
