Jamaican Rum

Phil Lynott

The woman she like to Rumba
The woman she like Calypso
The steel drums drive her crazy
And she can't seem to say no

She just can't seem to resist them, no
She's been drinking Jamaican rum
Dancing to the steel drums from the Caribbean
Drinking Jamaican rum

It's that West Indian rhythm
It was wild, it was wild
The night she came home drunk
She kicked in the door

And said lover you know what I want
Lover, give me what I want
She's been drinking Jamaican rum
And she's living with a black man

He's from the Caribbean
Drinking Jamaican rum
She's been drinking Jamaican rum
Dancing to the steel drums from the Caribbean

Drinking Jamaican rum
Rum and cola
It's very popular and it's twice as nice with ice

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by LYNOTT, PHILIP PARRIS
Lyrics Â© Universal Music Publishing Group

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/