I Know Why

Desi Oakley

Did you think I'd be okay,
When you said no this last time?
Did you sleep that night instead of
Counting sheep like last time?
I know why now.
I know why now.
Where was I when she was there to
Take my place in your heart?
Why could you have needed more than
Only me in your arms?
Well, I know why now.
I know why now.
I know why now.
And it's tearing me apart.
And it's tearing me apart.
And it's tearing me apart.
Don't assume I want you back.
I just need to piece this together.
All this time, I blamed myself.
I hate myself for the last time.
I've been made a fool not once,
But twice and that's the last time.
Cause, I know why now.
I know why now.
