

Sacrificed Sons

Dream Theater

Walls are closing anxiously
Channel surfing frantically
Burning city, smoke and fire
Planes we're certain, faith inspired
 No clues, a complete surprise
 Who'll be coming home tonight?
 Heads are turning towards the sky
 Towers crumble, heroes die
 Who would wish this on our people
 And proclaim that his will be done?
 Scriptures say he had misled them
 All praise their sacrificed sons
 All praise their sacrificed sons
 Teach them what to think and feel
 Your ways saw in lightening
 Watch them preach, I can't relate
 It cuts true love, acts of hate
 Who would wish this on our people
 And proclaim that his will be done?
 Scriptures say he had misled them
 All praise their sacrificed sons
 All praise their sacrificed sons
 God on high, a mistake
 Will mankind be extinct?
 There's no time, time to waste
Who serves the truth for heaven's sake?
