

Flowers Bloom

High Highs

Sometimes
The reflection I see
Bears no
Ressemblance to meSometimes
I look around the place I live
And wonder
How I came to choose the things I didIn the morning
He smiles
At the start of another day
He smilesKisses my shoulder
Cradles his body
Behind mine
Shin to toe to tigh to mind X5Sometimes
I wake and know the time will come
The day unfolds
Someday
That everything will resonate
Flowers bloom
In desolate placesIn the morning
He smiles
At the start of another day
He smilesKisses my shoulder
Cradles his body
Behind mineShin to toe to thigh to mind X4
Shin to toe to thigh to mind to mineSometimes it seems
All the birds are flying south
While I am groundedOne day I'll wake
And everything will resonate
Flowers bloom
In desolate placesIn the morning
He smiles
At the start of another day
He smilesKisses my shoulder
Cradles his body
Behind mineShin to toe to thigh to mind X4
Shin to toe to thigh to mind to mine
