

Bleak

Audrey

Do you know what it is?
And how you line them up
With the layers of a lipstick
We need stacks of bad acts Oh, I like the way you wear your bonds
It is so charming
Oh, I like the way your skin fits so well I see your fears, they're walking through me
I'm keeping you, painfully dirty work
You pay for all you've done wrong I call you fake
I call you fake We make the day start, we bind the ties (6x) You've been hiding among the animals
You're not the same anymore
You've been hiding among the animals
You're not the same anymore I call you fake
It's silly too late for apologies
