Cloudy Now

Blackfield

In a violent place we can call our country
Is a mixed up man and I guess that's me
The sun's in the sky but the storm never seems to endIt's a place of sorrow but we call it a home
And the darkest thoughts, yeah, I guess they're my own
There's wealth in the bank but there's nothing to show insideIt's cloudy now
It's cloudy now
It's cloudy now
It's getting cloudy nowIn a special place that I call my life
The father was cruel and he lost his wife
But I don't see either 'cos I live across the streetIt's a beautiful thing when it starts to rain
A man who drinks just to drown the pain
And I can't stop from dreaming there's something elseIt's cloudy now
It's cloudy now
It's cloudy now
It's getting cloudy nowIt's cloudy now
It's cloudy now
It's cloudy now
It's getting cloudy nowWe are a fucked up generation
It's cloudy now
We are a fucked up generation
It's cloudy nowWe gotta get out of here
It's cloudy now
We are a fucked up generation
It's cloudy now
