

Me and the Moon

The Drums

Darling you can so unforgiving you can be so unloving you can be misunderstanding but i don't know how to be without your love so tell me what to do do do do do do do do do do do do do its another night with the moon in the sky its another night with that look in your eye but you still sleep with you back to me so me and you

or is it me and the moon

oh baby i thought that you forgave me i thought that you still loved me don't you need me i wanted forever forever forever forever forever forever forever forever forever forever forever forever forever forever forever forever

but you still sleep with your back to me

so me and you
