

Better Than Me

Hinder

I think you can do much better than me
After all the lies that I made you believe
Guilt kicks in and I start to see
The edge of the bed where your nightgown used to be I told myself I won't miss you
But I remembered
What it feels like beside you I really miss your hair in my face
And the way your innocence tastes
And I think you should know this
You deserve much better than me While looking through your old box of notes
I found those pictures I took that you were looking for
If there's one memory I don't want to lose
That time at the mall - you and me in the dressing room I told myself I won't miss you
But I remembered
What it feels like beside you I really miss your hair in my face
And the way your innocence tastes
And I think you should know this
You deserve much better than me The bed I'm lying in is getting colder
Wish I never would've said it's over
And I can't pretend
I won't think about you when I'm older
'Cause we never really had our closure
This can't be the end I really miss your hair in my face
And the way your innocence tastes
And I think you should know this
You deserve much better than me I really miss your hair in my face
And the way your innocence tastes
And I think you should know this
You deserve much better than me
(And I think you should know this)
You deserve much better than me
(And I think you should know this)
You deserve much better than me
(And I think you should know this)
You deserve much better than me
(And I think you should know this)
