Baby Doll

Dan Wilson

Baby doll, you've been lonely I've been out of town
Play me unintended, circus clown
Looking for a someone just like you, girlBut now the stars are going out
An old familiar house are falling off the grid
I wanna get back on your list and resurrect the things we didBaby doll, I've been circling the whole world 'round
Trying to find the ones who stole my sound
So I could bring it back to you, girlYou'll be stashed and sad, and I'll be purring like a kitty cat
And you won't sit in silence like you do
Then you can tell me I'm the only one you make love to me tooAnd I don't want to love, no one else to love
No one else to love, no one else
And I don't want to love, no one else to love
No, I only wanna love my baby dollBaby doll, I've been knotting candles into wings
So I can fly up high and buy a things
Diamond rings and pretty horses tooIt's much less than you deserve but if I don't I'm guessing
I won't get the chance to make amends
While I'm paying you be and the ladies
Making contact with your friends then you'll disappear againAnd I don't want to lose, no one else to lose
No one else to lose, no one else
And I don't want to lose, no one else to lose
No, I only wanna lose my baby dollWhen I saw you laughing, you would shine like the sun
And reflected in your life, I would shine like the oneAnd I don't want to love, no one else to love
No one else to love, no one else
And I don't want to love, no one else to love
No, I only wanna love my baby dollNo one else to lose
No one else to lose, no one else
And I don't want to lose, no one else to lose
No, I only wanna love my baby doll, my baby doll, my baby doll
