

It Dwells In Me

All That Remains

Now hold this tight, don't let go
No burden, I can't forget the past is real
No longer fight this feeling, no burden
I can't erase what you've become this time

And I cast doubt

(No longer)

And I am able, I am strong

And now it dwells in me

True to this 'cause I hunger

I count the days that pass me by

I'll do what I know is right

No failure shall befall me this time

And I cast doubt

(No longer)

And I am able, I am strong

And now it dwells in me

And I cast doubt

(No longer)

And I am able, I am strong

And now it dwells in me

I cast doubt aside

I cast doubt aside

I cast doubt aside

(Cast doubt aside)

I cast doubt aside

And I cast doubt

(No longer)

And I am able, I am strong

And now it dwells in me

And I cast doubt

(No longer)

And I am able, I am strong

And now it dwells in me

I'm strong and it dwells in me

I'm strong and it dwells in me
