Make It Real

Gaither Vocal Band

I've seen a lot of crazy things done in your name
I know the ticks behind the magic show I've almost thrown the towel a time or two And walked away from everything I know but I can't fill the emptiness inside of me Or calm the troubled waters of my mind
So if You're really out there and You're listening then prove to me that those who seek will findCHORUS:
If You can just see fit to show me some of who you are
if You can shed some light into this broken sinners' heart
I need to know the truth and I need something I can feel
I need you to make it real there must be some good reason why You brought me here through valleys where the shadows hover close down here there's a mask to cover every face It's your sweet face I long to see the mostSo if You think there's just the slightest hope for me in spite of all my questions and my doubts then let me hear Your still small voice speak out my name and let me know what others talk aboutCHORUS:
If You can just see fit to show me some of who You are
If You can shed some light into this broken sinners' heart
I need to know the truth
and I need something I can feel
I need You
to make it real
I need to know the truth
and I need something I can feel
I need You
to make it real
