

Inside My Head

Di-rect

Is it wise enough to say
That I'm better off without you
Is it cool enough to fake
'cause all that I've been breathing is about you
Is it wise enough to flow
From the head until my toes
But somehow I don't really know
All that I've been doing is without you
Is it you inside my head
Is it you inside who says
That I become someone else
And on and on my mind keeps saying
This is not what I believe in
This is where it ends
And on and on my mind is made up
That is why it never stops
Alone again, alone again
Is it you inside my head
Is it you inside who says
That I become someone else
I didn't know that you're buzzing right through inside my head
I didn't know that you're coming right through inside my head
I didn't know that you're buzzing right through no I..
I didn't know that you're coming right through no I..
I didn't know, I didn't know, I didn't know..
I didn't know...Is it you inside my head
Is it you inside who says
Is it you inside my head
