

Fallen to Pieces

Halloween

Thunder, rain, my aching mind
Arise from a dream
Step aside into the shadows
Brightness just borrowed
For too short a time Why must I die one more time if I try?
Way down I pray but the skies turn to gray
How long lived I waiting? How long can live? I run high and low
I'm fallen to pieces
My heart cried for you
I'm fallen to pieces Say, do you see you're just playing with me?
Way down I flee from your spell and appeal
No more I'll be waiting, no longer I'll live I run high and low
I'm fallen to pieces
My heart cried for you
I'm fallen to pieces Hold on
Hold on Lies turn to ties for ill famed and disguised
One day you'll pay and your skies turn to gray I run high and low
I'm fallen to pieces
My heart cried for you
I'm fallen to pieces I died times ago
I'm fallen to pieces
Now I rise alone
I'm fallen to pieces
Fallen to pieces
