

Watchin' You

Anthrax

(written by Gene Simmons), originally performed by KISSLivin' as you do and I'm watchin' you

And you don't really know a-just what to doYou don't really know

You don't really know

What to doAnd I'm standin' here not quite aware

And I'm tryin' baby, tryin' not to stareOoh, 'cause everybody else is here

Yes, everybody else is here

Everybody else is here

Watchin' youOoh, 'cause everybody else is here

Yes, everybody else is here

Watchin' us
