

What I Would Tell You Now

The Glass Child

VERSE

I dream of northern lights
Lightning up the sky, I'm lonely
Thinking 'bout the way I threw my time away
Eternal regrets
Can't change my miss-steps
Feel it pulling me apart, can't feel your heart, tried to restart
But then that blue light blinding me again
PRE-CHORUS
Oh and I keep running never to arrive in time, when I close my eyes
Can we turn around, all the things that I would say to you now
I'd go back and I would tell you
CHORUS
Again and again and again for you my friend
Until the moonlight's calling again and again and I'd stay until the end
I'll be beside you, I'll go where you are
I'll come back to find you, doesn't matter how far
I'd tell you again and again
all the things I always meant:
You're not alone friend, I'll stay until the end
VERSE
I never told you
the simplest things
I never knew you oh my god where have I been?
The years kept pounding
I had my weak, old pride
Been directing every part of my life, except for this the one that matters, where are you now?
Pre-Chorus
Oh and I keep running never to arrive in time, when I close my eyes.
Can we turn around, all the things that I would say to you now
I'd go back and I would tell you
Chorus
Again and again and again for you my friend
Until the moonlight's calling
again and again and I'd stay until the end
I'll be beside you, I'll go where you are
I'll come back to find you, doesn't matter how far
I'd tell you again and again
all the things I always meant:
You're not alone friend, I'll stay until the end
Mid8
Rain keeps fallin
I keep calling

Can we turn around?
Rain keeps fallin
I keep calling
Can we turn around?Chorus
Again and again and again for you my friend
Until the moonlight's calling
again and again and I'd stay until the end
I'll be beside you, I'll go where you are
I'll come back to find you, doesn't matter how far
I'd tell you again and again
all the things I always meant:
You're not alone friend, I'll stay until the end
