

I'll Tell My Story

Sweet Symphony

Can't stop praising Him
I just can't stop praising Him
Can't stop praising Him
I just can't stop praising Him

Oh yeah!

I'll tell my story
Of how my Jesus
Reached down and pulled me up
Gave me new life
I can't stop prasing
I can't stop singing
My walk with Him gets sweeter by the day

Storms and troubles may make you question
And shake your faith
And leaving you doubting Him
No where to turn
No where to go
Take it from me I've walked that road before
Now I know there's no where else to go

Oooo
Ahhh yeah!

I'll tell my story
Of how my Jesus
Reached down and pulled me up
Gave me new life
I can't stop prasing
I can't stop singing
My walk with Him gets sweeter by the day

Come and taste and see how good
Jehovah is to those who do believe
That he still loves and forgives their sins
It doesn't matter where you've been
Confess your sins and you will see

And taste of this love I've come to know

I'll tell my story
Of how my Jesus
Reached down and pulled me up
Gave me new life
I can't stop prasing
I can't stop singing
My walk with Him gets sweeter by the day

Come and taste and see how good
Jehovah is to those who do believe
That he still loves and forgives their sins
It doesn't matter where you've been
And taste of this love I've come to know

I'll tell my story
Of how my Jesus
Reached down and pulled me up
Gave me new life
I can't stop prasing
