Lonely Road of Faith

Kid Rock

Up and down that lonely road of faith

I have been there

Unprepared for the storms and the tides that rise
I've realized one thing, how much I love you

And it hurts to see, see you cryin'
I believe we can make it through the winds of changeGod is great indeed

If you believe, in the everlife

Yeah we gotta

Make some sense of the piece that's not defined And if you just hold on, I won't let ya fall

We can make it through the storms and the winds of changeThough I walk through the valley of darkness I am not afraid

'Cause I know I'm not aloneAnd if the wind blows east, would you follow me
And if the wind blows north, would ya stay your course
And if the wind blows west, would ya second guess
And if it blows to the south, would you count me out
And if the sun don't shine, would you still be mine
And if the sky turns grey, would you walk away
Would you say I do, if I say I'll be
And walk this road through life with me
You know I love youuuuuOn this lonely road of faith
On this lonely road of faith
