

Fear Itself

Phazer

From nowhere it all came out
I close my eyes my muscles squeeze
The old blame returns to closeout
My chilly heart begins to pound

You are fear
I donâ€™t remember why
My chest
The tension now begins
My Breath
I do not have enough
My Heart
Beats like a horse

I fear the time that makes
my life one single day
One single day to survive
I fear the truth and
the lie that breaths below

Fear no one but fear itself!

When I bend my truth with pain,
I spit on me, I chase my tail.
The misery song begins to wane
The slayer dances in the blood pond

You are fear
I donâ€™t remember why
My chest
The tension now begins
My Breath
I do not have enough
My Heart
Beats like a horse

I fear the time that makes
my life one single day
One single day to survive
I fear the truth and

the lie that breaths below
