

Anthonio (Berlin Breakdown Instrumental)

Annie

Oh Anthonio,
It's been nearly one year since
Our Rio
Nights of forever
Pictures of you and me
Dancing and memories Through the masquerade
You led me by the hand
Whispered the words
"This Is Forever"
Said from the silver tongue
Thats where it started from Oh Anthonio,
My Anthonio,
Was I ever more than just a face in the crowd?
Did you even know my name?
Did you ever really care? Oh Anthonio,
My Anthonio,
Do you ever wonder why or where I am now?
Do you ever feel ashamed?
Do you even feel a thing? Oh There I was under stars
Hearts made in the sand
Lying from the boy
From Ipanema
Tide comes rushing in
Time and time again Now that summer has gone
Where did you run?
All my letters are
Returned to sender
For eternity
You're a part of me Oh Anthonio,
My Anthonio,
Was I ever more than just a face in the crowd?
Did you even know my name?
Did you ever really care? Oh Anthonio,
My Anthonio,
Do you ever wonder why or where I am now?
Do you ever feel ashamed?
Do you even feel a thing? Oh Oh Anthonio,
My Anthonio,
You got everything you ever wanted from me,

I was just another girl
It was just another night Oh Anthonio,
My Anthonio,
There is only one thing that I'm trying to say
It may come as a surprise
My baby has your eyes.
