You’re So Cool, I'm So Freaky

Kate Nash

Im a waste of space
I dont understand you
Send me away
Tomorrow is important
No matter what you say
So keep your distance from me
And keep yourself away
Keep everything to yourself
Since when was I so keen to share anywayI dont know
How I feel
Want to feel
Something real
Feel something real
Well nothing is real
Is that what you say?
Well everythings fake
So youre running away
Cause youre so coolYou cant come anywhere near me
Youre not coming anywhere near me
Well Im saying dont look anywhere near me
Youre not coming anywhere near me anywayI dont know
How I feel
Want to feel
Something real
Feel something real
Well nothing is real
Is that what you say?
Well everythings fake
So youre running away
Cause youre so coolIve got big plans
Ive got something to say
Tomorrow is important
And so is the next dayI dont know
How I feel
Want to feel
Something real
Feel something real
Well nothing is real
Is that what you say?

Well everythings fake
So youre running awayCause youre so cool
Youre so cool
And Im a waste of space
Youre so cool
And I dont understand it
And I have never been cool
And Im a freaky, freaky, freaky, freaky girl
