

A Different Vibe In L.A.

Canibus

[Chorus]

Doop-doop da-da..

It's a whole different vibe when you in L.A.

Doop-doop da-da..

It's a whole different vibe when you in L.A.

Doop-doop da-da..

It's a whole different vibe when you in L.A.

Doop-doop da-da..

It's a whole different vibe when you in L.A.[Verse 1]

Yeah, cruisin down Melrose, hella slow in a yellow Marinello

Lookin for who sells shelltoes that I could match with my silk robe

I'm like Hugh Hefner at 26 years old, with clear goals

Yeah I'll take two pair of those

I love the way my toes feel in the cyberfoam soles when I'm doin shows

Who knows, I'm prepared to go to and fro

All I do is tell you dudes where the Western Union dough

You need my social security info?

Here's my tax I.D. number, it's worth ten fold

I remember my first album, it shipped gold

That's a insult, considering I did this one in Kinko's

I'm dying to see what this will sold

Will the critics diss it at all, or will they feed 'Bus to the wolves?

Like I haven't been there before, but at least I'm on a different vibe now, this year it's on[Chorus][Verse 2]

It's definitely a different vibe west of the Prime Meridian

Producers play with live instruments, rhymes are wittier

But don't sleep 'cause in a heartbeat Cali is shittin ya

Someone'll put a hit on ya, this'll be where they bury ya

I think it's beautiful, I don't want to be scarin ya

The women are prettier and the climate is superior

Got a girl from Syria, smells like strawberries on her period

I'm serious - that's why I moved in with the chick

We on the top of Mount Olympus, sharin our interests over a moonlit dinner, burnin some insense

She looks so innocent, next think I know she's pinnin me to the bed

like a scene outta Basic Instinct

Bought her a pink mink and a double link ring

She didn't know I was a rapper and I did my thing-thing

What a coincidence, she listened to Eminem and Nsync

Shaggy, Nelly, and the St. Lunatic clique, Uh-Ohhhh! [Chorus] [Verse 3]

Yeah baby, Canibus in the flesh

Everybody want a dose of me, come here baby stand close to me

Take a photo with me, take this address

If you develop 'em post one to me

If you miss me and you wanna kiss me then blow one to me

I like your incentricities, tailor-fitting jeans

Tennis bracelets from Tiffany's in Venice, Italy

Are you from the Middle East? (Oh)

I plan to travel there after my new release

I got Timbaland doin some beats

Yeah, his cousin goes to school with my neice

By the way I'm sorta starred, what kinda food do you eat?

Yeah sure hop in the car, we'll cruise the streets

Around here I know alotta cool places to eat

You off from what, noon to three, just roll with me

My homie Lou just two-wayed me from Lagoon Beach

You can meet the rest of the crew, a bunch of super freaks

We got to unwind, we 'bout to hit the road in two weeks, c'mon [Chorus] Doop-doop da-da.. [repeat to fade]
