

The Light

Decoder

Uh, Rest in peace Jay Dilla

(Its Hip Hop)

Know I had to do a Jay Dilla joint

I never knew a luh, luh,luh a love like this

I put you over my money, all of my nice kicks

Mmm Not all of em,some still DS my D & P frizest, they havent seen the streets yet as I speak to the speakers I'm hopin this reach ya you are the flawless creature

Im in awe from all of those features regardless to all them, I appease her you is a dime to them other broads peace up that means two, between me and you theres nothing man made than can make it just you my hearts been tied, my souls been glued the whole block know who i roll with too them bitches all dimes and you autobooth

I guarantee our change whatever we go through

I told you before the light imma show you...you

[Chorus]

There are times when you'll need someone

I will be by your side

There is a light that shines

special for you and me

Its important we communicate, intentions to be forever but never cannot wait

Never becomes prominent, all we doin is arguin

Arguably retarded cause after sex we stop again

It's the best, I've forgotten what a condom is Life's a meal a good girl is a condiment

I compliment you with your conversation

Cause any girl could look good if she concentratin and personality is somethin that you cant make up sense of humour is a tool that you cant change up

Look, I ain gatta tell you, you know what I'm thinkin yea, a nigga shallow but I'm a deep thinker

In life she the wife who was right in that deep end given her the TLC I'll never creep then she make me Chili like T-Boz, me leave her out, I'd rather wear a pair of Filas or Reeboks

[Chorus]

There are times when you'll need someone

I will be by your side

There is a light that shines

special for you and me

It's knida fresh you listen to more than Wale nevermind I'm lyin she bumpin me all day

Honey is always the one imma call late night I need that she comin here right away night or day she need me hit it or four play

I'm feedin her the light just like what the chorus say

Hey, she give me love in abundance

Plus she outrun any youngin that I've hung with a fun chick its nothin to break funds with

I can do a whole song solely on that onion

My soul searchin is halted

I have opted to stop watchin them broads that bin plottin

You so got me, I'm open for life forever my wife focus let me show you the light

[Chorus]

There are times when you'll need someone

I will be by your side

There is a light that shines

special for you and me
