

Too Sentimental

Air Supply

One world, one love
These can never be apart
Whisper in your words
What is in your heart How can I stop this emotion
Knowing that it's true
Am I too sentimental for you? Have I gone too far?
If I knew this feeling
Is part of you too, girl Midnight, candlelight
Knowing you are close to me
So much I have inside
I've got to set it free With you silence can be spoken
If love has broken through
Am I too sentimental for you? Have I gone too far?
If I knew that this feeling
Is part of you too, girl Ooh, sentimental man
Am I saying too much too soon?
'Cause I love you, such a gentle girl
Waiting for you One love, two touch
We can never be apart
I want you so much
For what is in your heart How can we stop this emotion
Knowing that it's true
Am I too sentimental for you? Have I gone too far
If I knew that this feeling
Is part of you too, girl
