

So Much for the Afterglow

Four Year Strong

This is a song about Susan
This is a song about the girl next door
This is a song about the everyday occurrences
That make me feel like letting go
Yes, I think we've got a problem So much for the afterglow
So much for the afterglow This is a song about Susan
Yeah, this is a song about the way things are
This is a song about the scary things
You see from the corner of your eyes
Don't you wonder why? We never talk about the future
Yeah, we never talk about the past anymore
We never ask ourselves the questions
To the answers that nobody even wants to know
I guess the honeymoon is over So much for the afterglow
So much for the afterglow
So much for the afterglow
So much for the afterglow Ooh, I remember we could talk about anything
I remember when we used to want to hang out
I remember we could talk about everything
I remember when we used to want to hang out
I remember we could talk about everything Yeah, we never talk about the future
Ooh, we never talk about the past anymore
We never ask ourselves the questions
To the answers that nobody even wants to know
Oh well, oh well, oh well So much for the afterglow
So much for the afterglow
So much for the afterglow
Yes, I guess we need the drama So much for the afterglow
So much for the afterglow
So much for the afterglow
So much for the afterglow So much for the afterglow
So much for the afterglow
So much for the afterglow
So much for the afterglow
