

Jah Is True and Perfect

Ziggy Marley & The Melody Makers

So people ain't it time to feel
Rather than gazing past reality
So you run from the rock
End up in the wilderness
[Incomprehensible]
[Incomprehensible]Jah is true and perfect
More holy than man
Jah is true and perfect
And those who are with himHe that plant the seed is the son of man
The field is the earth, the good seeds are the children
Joyful is men when the truth is known
But sadness comes with the lies we tell
Oh, baby
Jah is true and perfect
More holy than man, baby
Jah is true and perfect
And those who are with himJust one more thing before you go
Jah is true and perfect
More holy than man
Jah is true and perfect
And those who are with himSo people ain't it time to feel
Rather than gazing past reality
So you run from the rock
End up in the wilderness
The big bad wolves have no regretsJah is true and perfect
More holy than man
Jah is true and perfect
And those who are with him
Jah is true and perfect
More holy than [Incomprehensible]
Jah is true and perfect
Those who are with him stay thereJah is true and perfect
Sing it
More holy than man
Sing it
Jah is true and perfect
Sing it
Those who are with him
Stay there[Incomprehensible]

Jah is true and perfect
Sing it
More holy than man
