

The Lord's Work

Vehemence

The lords work (2x) My head begins to swim
With visions of my life So much blood (2x) And for nothing more than a man-made dream
My family is dead because they made me
Lusting for Affection in gods name
Their blood merely a drop in oceans I created I am doing....the lords work (2x) Watching her in that room as she ignores me
I feel so alone, she never noticed me
Jealous of her god she did it to herself
I couldn't bear to see her love anyone Slipping away
My only escape
My blood drains
Death I embrace My body grows numb for the last time
Looking around at the innocent victims
I must not live to see another day
This bathroom is where I take my last breath The Lords Work (2x)
So Much Pain (2x)
The Lords Work (2x)
Is bullshit (2x) This story is the last fantasy of christ
Magical power that never existed
He was a man just like any other
His story was blown out of proportion I did kill her
He Never did a thing
Christ, I Fucking Hate You! The Lords Work (4x) God Was Created (4x) Don't believe all their lies
The Lords Work (2x)
