You! Me! Dancing!

Los Campesinos!

The beats yeah, they were coming out the speakers
And were winding up straight in your sneakers
And I'm dancing like every song who spends his bizzle
Like all my dance heroes would if they existedAnd yeah it's sad that you think that we're all just scenesters
And even if we were it's not the scene you're thinking of
To taking props from nineties boy band fashions
All crop tops and testosterone passionIf there's one thing I could never confess
It's that I can't dance a single stepIt's you, it's me
And there's dancing
It's you, it's me
And there's dancingNot sure if you mind if I dance with you
But I don't think right now you care about anything at all
If only there were clothes on the floor
I'd feel for certain I was bedroom dancingAnd it's all flailing limbs at the front line
Every single one of us is twisted by design
And dispatches from the back of my mind
Say as long as we're here everything is alrightIf there's one thing I could never confess
It's that I can't dance a single stepIt's you, it's me
And there's dancing
It's you, it's me
And there's dancingIf there's one thing I could never confess
It's that I can't dance a single stepOne thing I could never confess
It's that I can't dance a single stepIt's you, it's me
And there's dancing
It's you, it's me
And there's dancingIt's you, it's me
And there's dancing
It's you, it's me
And there's dancing
