

Stuck

Truth Before Treason

This life
Is so cold
But I feel
Like I am taking control
If you could see me now, you'd probably guess it was wrong
If you could see me now, you probably wouldn't be so strong

I'm not the man you wished I would be
What does it matter if you let go of me?

(Chorus) I can't fake this anymore
What is keeping me from the door?
If you could not wait for the end
Then tell me the notion that you kept

I feel
That you're wrong
To think that I am nothing at all
If you could see me now, you'd second guess how you feel
If you could see me now, you wouldn't believe it was real

The years of doubt, the years of misbelief
The years you tried to crucify me

(Chorus)

You're stuck
And I'm moving on

(Chorus)
