

La Japonaise

Freddie Mercury & Monserrat Caballé©

I feel the power of the stranger inside me
A force of magic surrounds me
This fountain within me is overflowingPeaceful and inviting Beautiful and enticingRising sun bless me morning with a smile
A magic pearl from the seas
Born in a willow breeze
Loyal friend my guardian angel in the sky
You've served me well all these years
Greeting with both hands trusting with no fears
Till the endWhen everything is golden and everything is oh
And everything is oh
My only living treasure on this eartgWhen everything is golden
Everything and everyone is oh
