Somebody Help Me

Sunrise Avenue

I need to see you right now,
You blow me away,
There's really something here.

I need to hold you tight now,
I want you in that way,
I really think you feel the same.

We spent the night in my car,
You messed my hair
And I needed nothing more.

Without you I am all right,
I love my life today,
But I love you so much more.

Somebody say when the fight is over,
My heart is all burned
And nothing can ease the pain.
I'm falling into something I'm scared,
It's all about her and I can't believe myself,
I behave like little girls â€“ it's unfair!
When will this fairytale get easy,
When will this doubt disappear from my head?

I took the spoon off my cup,
Like you always do,
'Cause it means bad luck in love.

It's been the day of my life,
But I'm thinking of you.
I seem to miss someone.

Somebody say when the fight is over,
My heart is all burned
And nothing can ease the pain.
I'm falling into something I'm scared,
It's all about her and I can't believe myself,
I behave like little girls â€“ it's unfair!
When will this fairytale get easy,

And when will this doubt disappear from my head?
Please somebody help me,
Somebody help me.

Somebody say when the fight is over,
My heart is all burned
And nothing can ease the pain.
I'm falling into something I'm scared,
It's all about her and I can't believe myself,
I behave like little girls â€“ it's unfair!
When will this fairytale get easy,
When will this doubt disappear from my head?
Somebody help me.
