Do You Really Want Me (show Respect)

Robyn

Boy, listen to me careful now
'Cause this is something every man should know
Oh this is a lesson about how
You treat your girl right just let it showAll that you love her that you need her say it
That you want her in every way
You gotta show your girl a little respect
Or you wont get nothing back but hateIt's those little things that mean so much
You gotta treat her right, or get out of her sightDo you really want me, am I really special?
Taking is so easy, boys, giving is unusual
If you really want me, don't make me wait too long
Respect and love is the key just listen to my songSafe is how she wants to feel, protect her with it all you've got
Oh, she wants to know your love's for real and be a good lover
Make her hot then she'll do everything, love you day and night
She'll do anything just do her rightIt's those little things that mean so much
You gotta treat her right, or get out of her sightDo you really want me, am I really special?
Taking is so easy, boys, giving is unusual
If you really want me, don't make me wait too long
Respect and love is the key just listen to my songGirls, don't give up, give your best
No part time job, no time to rest
Let him know what's up before
So he can give you more and moreAlrightYou gotta show your girl a little respect
Or you wont get nothing back but hateIt's those little things that mean so much
You gotta treat her right, or get out of her sightDo you really want me, am I really special?
Taking is so easy, boys, giving is unusual
If you really want me, don't make me wait too longDo you really want me, am I really special?
Taking is so easy, boys, giving is unusual
If you really want me, don't make me wait too long
Just listen to my song, my songYou gotta show me, baby, show me respect now
You gotta show me, baby, show me respect now
You gotta show me, baby, show me respect now
You gotta show me, baby, show me respect now
