

Sea of Nothing

Drugdealer

SIGN UPSea of NothingDrug DealerI know you wanted some of my fuel for your fire, honey

But I get so lazy

In the sea of nothing, babyTry to sleep

But the thought of what you were missing meets youGet so deep

On the shallowest of worry thinking

I know you wanted someone to fulfill your desire, buddy

And you keep on singing

That you've reached your highest towerTry to peak

But the sun is just not that revealingGet so deep

On the shallowest of worry thinkingI know you want to be somewhat of an originator

And you speak of spliffs

But all you got are rolling papers

Try to speak

But the thought of what you would say meets youGet so deep

On the shallowest of hurry thinking
