

The Bells

Aaron Neville

I'll never hear the bells if you leave me
I'll never hear the bells
I'll never hear the bells if you leave me
I'll never hear the bells Do you hear what I hear
Your lips are kissing mine
Can you hear the bells darling
Can you hear them when I'm kissing you What do I have to do to make you feel the tingling too
Can you hear the bells darling
Can you hear them when I'm kissing you Oh yeah
Oh, I hear the bells, oh ringing in my ear
Tell me do you love me, do you love me
Do you love me, do you love me like I love you
