Teenage Rockstar

Blowsight

Yeaahh teenage rockstarI'm not standing still
I'm not afraid
And now about to change the world
I'm getting dressed enough to work
You complain and moan you need to turn it all aroundSo find yourself a style
To the eyes
To the eyes
Of a burning flameLet's walk a thousand miles
To the dream
To the top
To the hall of fame
So find yourself a style
Live it loud
Live it up
Let's go too far
And when they ask you who you are
Well you're a teenage rockstar!
So please forget all the trends
Let's start a revolution
I love to see you at the front
Just not a contribution
You complain and moan you need to turn it all aroundSo find yourself a style
To the eyes
To the eyes
Of a burning flame
Let's walk a thousand miles
To the dream
To the top
To the hall of fame
So find yourself a style
Live it loud
Live it up
Let's go too far
And when they ask you who you are
Well you're a teenage rockstar!Ohhh let's kill the norm
Let's kill the trends
(This is where the story ends)Let's kill the fashion
Kill the trends
(All the ladies, all the men)Kill the norms

Kill the trend
(This is where the story ends)Yeah kill the fashion
Kill the trends
(All the ladies, all the men)
