

Unity

Electro Hippies

Theres so much hate, I could hate it all, but petty differences will be our downfall, we must stand together to achieve anything at all, stop this apathy and stop building wallsdont tell me Im wrong, until youre sure your right, but join with us because we must unite.
I refused to preach, because you shouldnt force, but weve got to stop this destructive course,Reconcile, co-operate, believe and create, end the bitching, competition and hate, and underneath I think youll find, that fashion sucks, so do narrow minds.
