Sacrifice

Naked Eyes

It couldn't happen to you, you know it never comes true
You don't believe
Think you're all on your own, what are you trying to prove?
It's easy, it's easy for meI thought I'd never be led by the heart or the hand
I didn't believe
But now I'm beginning to find that now I really don't mind
With you, I'm discovering meI'm suddenly free, I never thought thatI would sacrifice kind of life that I know
Sacrifice yesterday for all of our tomorrows
I'd sacrifice everything, beg, steal or borrow
SacrificeI never thought I could change all of the things that I do
That is 'til I met you
But now it isn't so strange, my life has been rearranged
It's suddenly trueWe were two of a kind believing lovers were blind
Too blind to see the truth
But now I've opened my eyes and I can see through the lies
And now that I doLooking at you, no more pretendingI could sacrifice the kind of life that I know
I'd sacrifice yesterday for all of our tomorrows
Sacrifice everything, beg, steal or borrow
I'd sacrificeI can daydream, I can make believe
I know it's not the real thing
I remember all the one night stands
As love without the feelingNow that I see the changes in me
There's no more pretendingI could sacrifice kind of life that I know
Sacrifice yesterday for all of our tomorrows
I could sacrifice the kind of life that I know
Sacrifice yesterday for all of our tomorrows
I'd sacrifice everything, beg, steal or borrow
I'd sacrificeI can daydream, I can make believe
I know it's not the real thing
I remember all the one night stands
As just another sacrifice
