Afterlife

Nocturnal Rites

I am the vengeance, a link between the worlds
Souring in legions, controller of all
I am the substance of the chaos
There's one dominion, an evil and divine
Spawn the inferno, oblivion calls
Don't look for sanctuary comingThe end is calling
Deceive and destroy
Afterlife - revelations unveilA blackness remains, the end of the line
Ashes of man, eye of the one divine
The blackness ascends, powers untold
The AfterlifeThe heart of chaos, will manifest again
The seed of the serpent, the dagger of doom
So even death can die in deadland
