

Nothin but trouble

Lily Lane

I know that you'll never change, so we should go our separate ways.
All these illusions all of these lies, even your friends say that i'm blind.Maybe tonight, you will stay because babe it ain't right, knowing you're out with her every night, but i need you beside me to make me stay.Don't make me cry by myself,

I can't hurt anymore
don't make me fall on my knees when I'm begging you for more light my fire, set me free, every time.

You're nothing but trouble,

uuuuuu

uuuuu

Maybe I could not believe, that you had me right where you wanted me to be.Maybe tonight,
you will stay because babe it ain't right,
knowing you're out with her every night,
but i need you beside me to make me stay.Don't make me cry by myself

When I'm begging you for more light my fire, set me free you know just what I need

Every night

uuuuu

uuuuu

uuuu

uuuu

Don't make me cry by myself

uuuuu
uuuuu
uuuuu
uuuuu
