Lay the fuck down

Infamous cartel, visible evidence

We scarred well, associated team benevolent

Never hesitant, opposition get settled here with

Sharp shit that'll rip through one hundred layers of Kevlar

Sharp like the jim star, exiled, son, he get sent far

He's the foulest, QBC gat bust the loudest

Below profile, peep style, thirsty prowest

Catchin' court cases, pay for your legal aid

Son, that's money wasted, I ain't got time for that

Invest third place on my best sold rap

On the scrap from the ignorant cats

It'll be dead in a few, just like that

Couldn't bust his gat right

(Yo, y'know what?)

But now you bucked your own man, amateur ass

Homeboy take that ass to class

But you cut in, duckin' a reality blast

You catch a D minus fuckin' with New York's finest

The conversation from them outsiders

Dick riders, connivers bomb ya camp

We know survivors, push you off guard, got homicidin'

We analysin', tell you up front ain't no surprises

We take you down first 'round, give ya man pound

Man down

(Man down, down, down, down)

Man down

(Man down, down, down, down)

Man down

(Man down, down, down, down)

Lay the fuck down

Check it out, dun, them niggas ain't ones

To be blowin' off the top and shit, I'm tired of shit

Dun, I'm about to dot the bitch and leave him stiff

Toss me the fifth so I can bless the God with gift

Yo nigga Noyd, what's the topic? Yo, the topic is this
