Away With You

Slick Shoes

How do you think I felt that day
I made up for all your mistakes?
You never think of consequences
Carelessly destructive, you fall downI can see you sittin' there
Wish that you could see yourself
I wish I knew what was goin' on inside
I'll just be sickened moreWhy don't you open your eyes?
You're not all you think you are
Your selfishness is gettin' on my nerves
Why don't you go away?Forgettin' all that you've been taught
Is this the way you treat your friends?
I've dealt with you for long enough
When will it end?I hope that this is just a phase
I'll be there for you in the end
I'll be there when you finally come around
But for nowWhy don't you open your eyes?
You're not all you think you are
Your selfishness is gettin' on my nerves
Why don't you go away?And don't come back
Have you ever know what you're lookin' for?
(Go away)
And don't come back
Have you ever know what you're lookin' for?(Go away)
And don't come back
Have you ever know what you're lookin' for?Why don't you open your eyes?
You're not all you think you are
Your selfishness is gettin' on my nerves
Why don't you go away?
