Waving My Arms In the Air

Syd Barrett

Waving my arms in the air
Love, my love, got no care
No care, no, noPressing my feet to the ground
Stand up right where you stand
Call to you and what do you do
Laying back in a chair?She's so high on the air
She's so high on the air
Half and half, half and halfAll you have to do to call
Is hold her her hand, stand a while
And then smile and we'll understand
Yes, we do, yes, yes, we doOh, what a girl I got too
Oh, what a girl I got too
With her slinky look
She held her tie to her hair
Let it see everywhereNo one in the land, no one
No one in the land, no oneBut it rains on Saturday
Cats and dogs in the hay
Stormy day, hey, heyAnd you shouldn't try to be
What you can't be
You shouldn't try to be
What you can't be
Call to you and what do you do
