Think Again

Teddy Thompson

Walking away I feel ashamed
Thinking on what I've done
She was naive and I was a sleaze
Some things can't be undoneThink again, don't give in
This isn't what you want
Feelings change, morning brings rain
This isn't what you wantHard to believe that I could be Someone's idea of love
I should have been out of reach
Baby I'm not that strongThink again, don't give in
This isn't what you want
Feelings change, morning brings rain
This isn't what you wantI'm here today but I won't stayOh, think again, don't give in
This isn't what you want
Feelings change, morning brings rain
This isn't what you wantThink again, don't give in
This isn't what you want
Feelings change, morning brings rain
This isn't what you want
