

Caroline

Brandi Carlile

Hello, I'm looking for a friend I lost some time ago
Your mother says she wants her girl back home
Sometimes you think you've found yourself
You really only lost yourself
Or maybe you're afraid to be alone But if I could see behind blue eyes
At all the things that dusty windows tried to hide
Then I could see behind the walls of Caroline
And behind blue eyes I heard that you're in town again
You surely can depend on me
To keep you out of the sun
Down and out and out
And then I'm climbing up the walls again
We're standing in line to be the one But if I could see behind blue eyes
And all the things that dusty windows tried to hide
Then I could see behind the walls of Caroline
And behind blue eyes I've faced it, I'm wasted
Don't fly away before your time
It's phony, you owe me
Come on don't fly away before your time Yeah but if I could see behind blue eyes
At all the things that dusty windows tried to hide
Then I could see behind the walls of Caroline
And behind blue eyes
